

WHEN THE LAW FAILED

To Give Carrie Bowers Justice She Tried Bullets.

SHE SHOT HER FALSE LOVER

On the Street, Firing Three Shots, one of which Took Effect--After Betraying Her He Blackened Her Character--A Poor Girl Driven to Desperation by Her Wrongs.

New York, Oct. 22.--Carrie Bowers, a comely brunette, eighteen years old, of No. 87 Greenpoint avenue, Brooklyn, shot and seriously wounded Walter Foster, twenty years old, of No. 133 Calver street, Greenpoint, last night.

She fired three shots at the young man, whom she met in the street near his home. One of the bullets struck him in the right breast above the nipple. After the shooting the woman ran toward the river and three hours later returned to her home. Her father, who had been informed of the shooting by the police, sent for the detectives and she was taken to the police station.

Carrie is the eldest of three children. Her father is a laborer and her mother an invalid. She became acquainted with Foster through a street flirtation. After several weeks Foster, according to the girl's story, betrayed her on his promise that he would make her his wife.

Then he began to treat her coldly, and stopped his visits to her. She went to him several times and begged him to keep his promise. He turned a deaf ear to her entreaties, and told her to go to her other admirers. She then obtained a warrant in the Leo Avenue police court for his arrest for betrayal. The case was tried three weeks ago, and Foster brought forward six witnesses who gave testimony which sadly damaged the young woman's reputation. The girl had no evidence to refute the assertions of these witnesses and the case was dismissed.

THREATENED TO KILL HIM.

A scene ensued before Justice Goetting when this disposition was announced. The girl wept bitterly and on the way out of court she declared her intention of killing Foster at the first opportunity.

Fearing she would carry her threat into execution Foster did not go out as often in the evening as usual, and when he did go out he was accompanied by friends.

Foster's father is in the employ of an insurance company in this city. There are five more children besides Walter, two daughters and three sons. Walter is a clerk in the oil works of Sone & Fleming, in Kingsland avenue, Greenpoint. On his way out and from work morning and night he generally went through Calver street. That thoroughfare near Guernsey street in the neighborhood of his home is dimly lighted at night.

While on his way home at 6 o'clock last night, unconscious of any danger, he was shot by the woman.

She was seen lurking around the corner for an hour before she did the shooting. Several people saw her, but paid no attention to her. Shortly before Foster appeared she was seen to go to a lamp post and examine something which she seemed to have under her red striped shawl. She walked back into the darkness and concealed herself in a doorway.

When Foster appeared she stole up behind him and fired the three shots at him, exclaiming:

"I AM HAVING MY REVENGE."

"Now I am having my revenge. Take that, and that, and that."

The first bullet went wide of the mark. Foster turned, and the second bullet struck a button on his coat and glanced off. As he started to run away the third bullet struck him in the right breast, an inch and a half above the nipple.

He was paralyzed for a moment and then staggered to Lorimer street and went through to Meserole avenue and thence to Manhattan avenue, where he fell senseless on the sidewalk beside Policeman Clark, of the Greenpoint avenue police station. He was carried into a grocery store and a doctor was summoned.

Pending his arrival Foster revived and told who had shot him. Word was sent to the police station, and within five minutes Captain George R. Rhodes had twenty men searching for the woman.

The report of the shooting attracted the attention of the people living in the vicinity of Guernsey and Calver streets, and when several ran out of their houses to ascertain the cause they saw the girl running down Calver street. She stopped at Franklin street to arrange her hat and then ran through Franklin street to Noble and disappeared in the latter thoroughfare, going in the direction of the river.

HER FATHER ARRESTED.

Three policemen went to her residence, on the third floor of No. 87 Greenpoint avenue, but failed to find her. Believing that her father knew something of the shooting, they placed him under arrest and took him to the police station. Bowers was much affected when he was told that his daughter had shot Foster. He almost fainted, and would have fallen to the sidewalk but for the assistance of the police. At the police station he told Captain Rhodes that Carrie had appeared melancholy all day and ate nothing. He asked her what troubled her, and she replied that she felt as though she could not bear her shame any longer and must do something.

Bowers offered to assist the police in trying to find his daughter. He was not held by them, and on his return home he discovered that his revolver was missing. He returned to the police station and reported that his pistol was missing, and that Carrie had probably taken it to shoot Foster.

It was not until three hours afterward that Carrie returned to her home. In the interim, she said, she had been sitting on the pier at the foot of Noble street, trying to determine whether or not to commit suicide. She admitted the shooting, and said she was sorry she had not killed Foster.

In the meantime an ambulance was called to the store into which Foster was carried and Surgeon Gifford examined the wound. He gave it as his opinion that the bullet had penetrated too lung and that Foster's condition was extremely critical. He removed him to the Eastern District Hospital, where Dr. Silas Blaisdell attempted to extract the bullet, but failed.

FOSTER'S DENIAL.

The young man was conscious while the doctor was probing for the bullet. He denied he had ever promised to marry the girl. He said he did not know he was shot until he reached Manhattan avenue, when he began to feel sick.

The girl was in the Leo Avenue police court a week ago to get another warrant for Foster's arrest for being the father of her unborn child. She obtained the warrant, but returned to court the following day and withdrew the charge, stating to the clerk that she would resort to other means to have revenge. On her way out of the clerk's room she put her hand in her bosom and said that she had something there which gave her what a court had refused to give her--justice.

"And I will have it before very long," she said as she left the court house.

Neighbors of the girl said last night that since Carrie's disgrace became known her parents treated her cruelly and she was almost goaded to desperation as the result of it.

TIN PLATE MILL

To Employ 1,000 Men--Contract Let at Anderson, Ind.

ANDERSON, IND., Oct. 22.--At a meeting of the directors of the American Tin Plate Company, held here yesterday, contracts for erecting the buildings and furnishing machinery for the new factory at Ellwood were let. Work on the excavations has begun, and contracts require the factory, which will employ 1,000 men, to be ready to run by March 1, next.

GOOD SENATOR BRICE

How his Gas Company Proposes to Violate Its Contract.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 22.--The natural gas company of which Calvin S. Brice is principal stockholder, and which has for two years been furnishing this city with fuel, yesterday notified patrons to be prepared to have gas shut off December 1. This action is not brought about by scarcity of gas, but because citizens insist that the company shall continue to furnish gas at contract price of ten cents per thousand cubic feet, which contract has eighteen years yet to run. The company demands an advance to twenty-five cents and has instituted a game of freeze out. Much litigation will be the immediate result.

STRONG LANGUAGE

From Mr. Chamberlain--Has no Faith in a Gladstonian Policy.

LONDON, Oct. 22.--Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, delivering a political speech in Sunderland, said: "I do not believe that the coming elections will give Mr. Gladstone a majority of the members of Parliament. I almost wish they might give him a majority in order that the country might again see what an awful mess he would make of our affairs. Six months of Mr. Gladstone's government would involve us in disastrous foreign complications, plunge Ireland back into anarchy and let loose the petty jealousies that have been repressed while the party has been in opposition. The course of events has justified the action of the Unionists and proved that the Paracletes lied when they said Mr. Gladstone's home rule bill of 1886 would be accepted as final."

Gale on the Irish Sea.

LONDON, Oct. 22.--A terrible gale, accompanied by tremendous seas, is prevailing at Anglea, an island of Wales in the Irish sea. Many vessels which were damaged in the storm have taken refuge at Holyhead. A Norwegian brig was driven ashore at that place and wrecked. The life boatmen, stationed in the vicinity, went to the rescue of the imperilled crew and succeeded after a desperate struggle in bringing them safely to shore.

Violated the Conditions.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 22.--The trustees of Elizabethtown have sued the Chesapeake and Ohio Southern Railroad Company and the Newport News and Mississippi Railroad Company for $200,000 damages by the removal of the company's shops from that town. The town in 1868 gave $75,000 toward the construction of the road, upon condition that the shops should be permanently located there. The shops were removed to Paducah about five years ago.

Lots of Grain Burned.

NORTHFIELD, MINN., Oct. 22.--At Castle Rock yesterday morning the elevator of E. T. Archibald & Co., leased by B. F. Miller and T. Clute, was burned. It was valued at $5,000 and was nearly filled with grain of all kinds. There were probably $20,000 to $30,000 worth of grain stored in it at the time of its burning. The elevator was partly insured, but it is feared the grain will be nearly a total loss.

Not Due to the McKinley Bill.

GREAT BARRINGTON, MASS., Oct. 22.--The Glendale woolen mill here has been burned, causing a loss of $200,000.

They Mean Business.

BALTIMORE, October 22.--By a vote of 72 to 25, the Presbyterian Synod of Baltimore, yesterday, adopted a resolution calling on the General Assembly to make a formal declaration of the entire severance of all relations between it and the Union Theological Seminary of New York unless the questions between the two be settled before the next meeting of the General Assembly.

Dedication Postponed.

GETTYSBURG, PA., Oct. 22.--The monument recently erected by the States of Maine, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan and Minnesota at the "High Water Mark of the Rebellion," was to have been dedicated on the 19th of November, but the event has been postponed until early next summer.

M. L. BLAIR, Alderman, Fifth ward, Scranton, Pa., stated November 9, '93: "He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time."

A fox squirrel, killed near Seymour, Ind., is said to have measured three feet and nine inches from nose to tip of tail.

ADVICE TO WOMEN

If you would protect yourself from Painful, Profuse, Scanty, Suppressed or Irregular Menstruation you must use

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

CARTERSVILLE, April 25, 1891. This will certify that two members of my immediate family, after having suffered years from Menstrual Irregularity, were treated without benefit by physicians, being at length completely cured by one bottle of Bradfield's Female Regulator. Its effect is truly wonderful. J. W. STRANGE.

IS IT GARSEA?

The Famous Mexican Insurgent Said to be in Jail in Missouri.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22.--A special dispatch from St. Joseph, Mo., says Garsea, the Mexican insurgent, who tried to make the State of Durango free, and led its people to a bloody fight, is thought to be in jail at the little town of Maryville, Norway county, Mo. Colonel Bailey, an attorney at Victoria, Texas, was in St. Joseph yesterday, en route to Maryville. Colonel Bailey said that he was going to Maryville to have his client released, if possible, on a habeas corpus. The attorney told the object of his visit accidentally, and seemed to be very sorry afterwards that he had said anything. Mr. Bailey also intimated that the sheriff of Austin, Texas, had an inkling to Garsea's whereabouts, and would try to take him to Texas, so that he might be delivered to the Mexican authorities. In that event they would receive a reward of about $25,000. What Garsea is in jail at Maryville for cannot be learned.

REVOLUTION AVERTED

By Prompt Action on the Part of the Troops of Paraguay.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 22.--Advises received from Asuncion, the capital of the Republic of Paraguay, bring news of an attempt to overthrow President Juan Gonzalez. The attempted revolution, however, was promptly suppressed by the troops loyal to the government. Full details are not yet procurable, but it is known that there has been an uneasy feeling in Paraguay and a spirit of hostility to the government there for some time past. This has resulted in rumors as to plots against the government and conspiracies to overthrow the President. As usual in all South American revolutions, the trouble originated in and was nurtured by political rivalries and disappointed ambitions, the "outs" scheming against the "ins" and the latter leaving no stone unturned to crush their opponents, politically and otherwise.

A Great Electrical Exhibit.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.--Chief Barrett, of the World's Fair electrical department to-day received a letter from J. A. Hornsby, his lieutenant, dated Frankfort-on-the-Main, saying Mr. Hornsby will come home with a proposition from Michael Von Doliva De Brousky to transmit 1,000 or 5,000 horse power alternating three phase current from Niagara to the exposition at a pressure of 50,000 volts over an uninsulated copper wire about the size of an American number six. He says also that the Ganz people of Vienna want to run a line of their rapid transit road from the exposition to St. Louis, making the distance regularly in 3 hours and with a provision for running a carriage or car every half hour.

Missing Fishing Schooners.

GLoucester, Mass., Oct. 22.--Schooner Percy, owned by James Sayer, with a crew of twelve men, and the schooner City Point, owned by Cushing & Kenny, of Portland, with a crew of fourteen men, sailed on codfishing voyages about August 25, the Percy to Georges, and the City Point to Le Nave banks. Neither has been heard from since, and there is little doubt that they have been lost with all hands. The men are mostly provincials and foreigners by birth, but many of them leave families in New England.

Free Tuition No More.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.--A Press special says Lehigh University will abolish free tuition after January 1, 1892, charging those who apply after that date.
